Fire Company Hold Meeting

The regular meeting of the Alert Fire Company was held at the City Hall last Monday evening. A good bunch of fire fighters were present. The meeting was called to order by President Grant. As the chief was not present there was no report of officers and the first before the meeting was the report of the committees under which the report of the By-Laws committee was heard and as they say were not ready the Committee ask for more time which was granted. The matter of the officers which were elected at the last meeting was brought up and as several of those present were of the opinion that the election was out of order President Grant asked the old officers to act for the rest of the term ending in December, this was satisfactory and the old officers of the Department will hold office until the regular election then. Fireman LaBounty reported that two of the new lanterns from Hose house No. 1 had been stolen during the past month and the President asked the firemen to keep a lookout for them to see if they could be located. As in all probabilities the city will build a new fire hall this fall, the subject came up for discussion and it was decided that if it was built to ask the Council to move the fire bell from Red Men's Hall and place it in the tower of the new building. As there was no further business to come before the meeting a motion to adjourn was duly carried.

According to a Ketchikan note, England officially declared war on Germany yesterday evening. Watch for the bulletin tomorrow.

Capt. Talmadge of the Uncle Dan received a wire from W. J. Neill at Ketchikan this morning to the effect that the new mail boat "Prince of Wales" would be in Wrangell today and would take this trip out. But up to six o'clock nothing has been seen of her but she is expected at anytime. Later—The Prince of Wales has just arrived, but time does not permit us describing her this issue

The Democratic Convention met in Skagway last Monday and while as yet we have received no definite information, Mr. N. J. Svindseth was in receipt of a wire stating that the convention had nominated Chas. Bunnell, of Valdez, as Delegate to Congress.

Gold Robbery Near Dease Lake

Customs of Collector, F. E. Bronson received a telegram last Friday from the Chief of the Provincial Police at Victoria to the effect that $4000 in gold had been stolen while in transit from Dease Lake to Telegraph, and that a man by the name of Defossett was suspected which he was asked to keep a lookout for.

The gold belonged to Warburton Pike and is believed to be the result of a clean up of the dump which was in the way of future development and had to be moved. According to the story Defossett had been working for Pike for the last summer and knew the gold was going out so quit his job and asked permission to accompany the party to Telegraph, which was given and they started in but at the head of Dease Lake the party met Mr. French, Manager of the Hudson's Bay Interests, W. S. Simpson and H. C. McNaught, bound for Telegraph so the gold was turned over to them and Mr. Pike and party returned to their claims, Defossett coming on with the party. The second night after left Dease Lake the box was broken open and the gold taken out and rocks substituted in its place, the next morning when the gold was placed on the pack horses the guide complained to Mr. French of the peculiarities in the weight of the box, but nothing was thought of it until camp was made that night when the box was opened and the robbery discovered. A runner was dispatched on to Telegraph to report the loss to the officials and that night Defossett disappeared and nothing further was seen of him by the party, but it is reported that he appeared at an Indian camp the next day and secured a 22 rifle.

Defossett is a native of Belgium and is believed to be the man that worked in the saw mill here last year before going into that country.

This robbery shows the necessity of some kind of police patrol in that country, as at present there is none except the police at Telegraph. This country is rapidly becoming one of the great gold producing sections and now is the time to apply for Mounted Police such as are in the Yukon Territory to protect the pack trains on their way from the mines to Telegraph. At present there is supposed to be at large in that part of the country, Siman Gunamoot, an old bad man, who killed two men at Hazelton about three years ago, and has been traced to that section where he is supposed to be living with the natives. From such men as these, and more will come if there are no police, some action should be taken by the British Columbia government to put the Mounted police in this district to preserve order and law.

Sentinel To Get Press News

The Sentinel has made arrangements in Seattle to get press service for a daily bulletin on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday so that this will give us in Wrangell the interesting happenings of the war day by day. The price of cents per copy will have to be charged to cover the expense of the service and publication. We will publish it as long as the demand justifies it so call around and let us put you down for it to be delivered as soon as published each day.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5—The war aeroplanes of the Russian army are proving themselves very important factors in the present war as they are being used for scouting expeditions and are keeping track of the German advances and moves.

The censor of the news sent out of the trouble sent is very strict and reliable news is scarce according to the Prince Rupert dispatch.

The Steamer Northland of the Northland Steamship Company was in port yesterday and discharged a supply of oil for the local agency of the Standard Oil Co.

The Berg boys came in from their mining claims last Tuesday evening and report everything coming fine up there. The boys state that the incessant high water is causing much trouble and that one of their bridges over Eran Creek was washed out the first of the week, but it is expected to be back in place by the time they get back as Chris. Weido is busy replacing it.

This week we are publishing in another section of the Sentinel the new franchise granted to the Wrangell Electric Light and Power Company by the City Council, this is the franchise that should have been in the last issue but did not arrive in time.

The Princess Sophia was in port last Tuesday and happened to arrive at the right time so laid here for about eight hours. She has a capacity load of tourists this trip and many notable ones among them.

"What Happened to Mary" is coming to the Rink next week.

Wrangell has had a good blow for the past few days.

Miners Leave For Telegraph

The river boat Karen left the first of the week for Telegraph with J. G. Galvin, George Murphy and crew of the company. As freight the Karen has aboard the Starr drill of the company which they will use to thoroughly prospect their claims in that section of the country, the drill had to be taken all apart to be loaded on the boat but everything was taken all O. K. This company will do some very extensive work in the Dease Lake country this year and great things are expected.

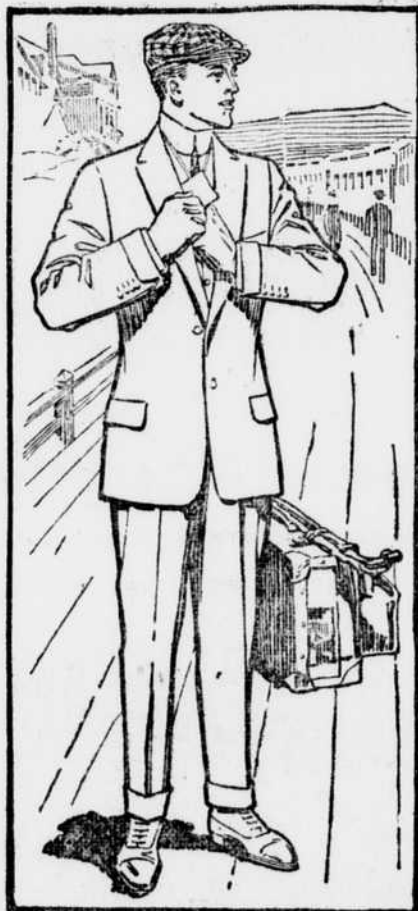

The "Sea Wolf" shown at the Rink last night drew a packed house. The picture is truly a wonderful production, and is as vivid and real as life. The next feature shown will be "The Squaw Man" in five reels, which will be shown in about ten days. This picture is by the same company and promises to be as good.

A. M. Tyson, General Inspector of Indian Agency's for British Columbia, arrived up on the Princess Sophia last Tuesday, and left again yesterday on the Winifred for Telegraph where he goes to inspect the agency at that place.

A good show at the Wrangell Photostow tonight.

Almost a Tragedy.
"It was a lovely night. The stars were twinkling, the moon was shining, the dogs were howling, and the cats were holding forth in chorus. I was strolling along the track when suddenly I saw a beam lying across the rails. I looked at it, but, much as I wished, I hadn't the power to move. I was in a tremble. I did not know what to do, for just at that moment I heard the rumble and roar and rattle of a coming express. Nearer and nearer it came. Louder and louder grew the noise. What was I to do? I was powerless. And then the engine leaped at the beam—and passed on unscathed. It was—it was a moonbeam!"—London Answers.

MEASURE OF SUCCESS.
It is one of the appointed conditions of the labor of men that in proportion to the time between the seed sowing and the harvest is the fullness of the fruit and that generally, therefore, the farther off we place our aim and the less we desire to be ourselves the witnesses of what we have labored for the more wide and rich will be the measure of our success.—John Ruskin.

A School For Bachelors.
In London there is a school in which bachelors are taught to make beds, cook, sew and look after their home needs generally.

The Golden Crested Wren.
The golden crested wren is the smallest not only of British but of all European birds. Its average weight is only about eight grains troy. The length of the feathers is about three and a half inches and the stretch of the wings about five inches, but when the feathers are taken off the length of the body does not exceed one inch.

A Tiresome Type.
Who makes the best of earthly life,
Nor wastes his time complaining
That all the days with woe are rife,
His idle teardrops raining,
May never win to lofty heights
By superhuman labors.
But since he smiles at fortune's slight
Will be loved by his neighbors.

We all detect the pessimist,
Whose frowns drive cheer away.
The sort of man who can't desert
From growling day by day;
Who never sees the brighter side
Of any mortal's lot
And when the clouds his coffin hide
Is speedily forgot.
—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Out of the Mouths of Babies.
Thomas W. Lawson, condemning crooked business, said to a Boston reporter:
"A boy was caught in a lie by the head bookkeeper the other day."
"My son," said the bookkeeper solemnly, "do you know what becomes of boys who deceive and prevaricate?"
"The youngster looked at the shabby old bookkeeper, sneered and answered: "Of course I do. The boss lifts 'em right out of the starvation, pen pushin' class, makes 'em department heads and takes 'em into the firm before they're forty."—Boston Post.

Eau de Cologne.
The first cologne was called Hungary water, from the country of its invention. It was made from spirits of wine distilled upon rosemary.

Lemon Rind.
The "zest" of lemon is the very thinnest possible grating of the yellow outer rind. If any of the white underneath is added the whole will become bitter.

A Kitchen Hint.
If you use a tin funnel as a twine holder in your kitchen, try cutting a notch in the small end of the funnel where the end of the twine comes through. Sharpen the edges of this notch with a small file, when the twine will cut easily.

Jamaica's Wood.
Jamaica has a great deal of valuable wood in its interior, but the streams are not large enough to bring it to the coast.

Her Version of It.
"But didn't you promise when we were married that I should smoke in the house whenever I pleased?"
"Yes, but you never please by smoking in the house. You displease me."

HIS JOB WAS SHAKY.

So Callahan Put a Couple of Nails to Hold it Down.
This interesting narrative was revealed in a conversation between the conductor and another railway employee in the early morning hours the other day on a Smith street car.
"Is Callahan on the road yet?"
"Sure. He's got a steady run on No. 82,444."
"But I thought he got into trouble."
"He did. He struck a butcher's wagon some time ago."
"That's bad."
"Divvel a bit Callahan thinks so."
"And why?"
"You know when a motorman hits anything and it is his fault he has to pay for it, don't you?"
"Sure, the company takes a dollar a week out of his envelope until it is paid up."
"Right you are. Well, a cold winter is coming on, and Callahan thought it was time to hit something. So he hit a butcher's wagon."
"Make me wise, will you?"
"It's this way. Ever since he has been here Callahan has been shaky about holding his job. One day he did $10 worth of damage to the back of an undertaker's wagon, smashed a glass or something like that."
"Yes."
"He was told he would have to pay a dollar a week until the damage was made good."
"The Better Way."
"Positively the worst struggle I ever had in the water," said a young man who had been at sea, "was one night trying to save a man with a wooden leg."
"Man," said an old Scotchman who was quietly listening, "if ye had got a bit of rope ye could hae saved the man quicker w' it than ye could dave w' ten widden legs."

LITTLE PUSHES.

The world's progress is caused not only by the mighty pushes of its heroes, but also by the aggregate of the tiny pushes of each honest worker, and every man who refuses to push because his effort would be so small is making a foolish mistake.
